5. All spirit drawn during the day shall be removed and stored in the outer compartment of the strong room, and the following working day gauged and tested with the standard Sikes' hydrometer. PART I.

Manufacture of country spirit at the Quetta Distillery.

1. The exclusive right to manufacture country spirit at the Quetta Distillery shall be granted by the Revenue Commissioner in Baluchistan to an approved person or firm for any period not less than one year and not exceeding three years.

Form No 1.

The license shall be in the attached form.

2. To enable him to select a suitable Distiller, the Revenue Commissioner shall call for tenders of the prices per gallon at which tenderers will supply standard country spirit to the persons legally authorized to obtain such spirit; but it shall be open to the Revenue Commissioner to accept the lowest or any other tender as he may think fit.

3. In inviting such tenders the Revenue Commissioner may require tenderers to furnish security deposits of such amount and on such conditions as he may consider necessary; and he may further require the successful tenderer, or the person or firm to whom the contract may be granted, to deposit such security as to him may seem adequate for the due fulfilment of the terms and conditions of the contract.

4. In the event of the death of the Contractor it will be entirely within the discretion of the Revenue Commissioner to permit his heir or legal representative to have the benefit of the license for the unexpired portion of the term for which it was granted.

5. The Distillery Contractor shall not be charged any license fee nor shall he be responsible for the payment of the Government still head duty which shall be paid by the person taking spirit from the Distillery, but he shall be required to pay such rent as the Revenue Commissioner may fix for the use of the Distillery stills, wells, godowns and other buildings in the Distillery enclosure. Such rent to be notified in the notice calling for tenders.

6. The Distillery Contractor shall be required to maintain, during the period of his contract, such reserve supply of spirit not exceeding the average consumption for two months as the Political Agent, Quetta, may consider necessary, except during the last two months of the contract when the prescribed reserve may be drawn upon.

7. One month's supply of spirit, calculated on the consumption during the immediately preceding three months, shall be handed over by the out-going to the in-coming Distillery Contractor, which supply shall be taken over at a price to be mutually arranged between them, or in case they cannot agree determined by an arbitrator appointed by the Political Agent, Quetta, whose decision shall be final.

8. On the expiry of the contract, or if it is revoked or cancelled, all materials and other ingredients, as well as all vessels and other apparatus belonging to the licensed Distiller which are not required to be made over to the in-coming Distiller shall be forthwith removed from the Distillery. All spirit remaining in the distillery in excess of one month's supply mentioned in the foregoing rule shall be disposed of as the Revenue Commissioner may direct.

9. The Distillery Contractor shall not be permitted to take any wholesale or retail license whatever for the sale of country spirit either directly or indirectly.

15. Licensed wholesale vendors shall establish a depôt or warehouse at some convenient place, to be approved by the Political Agent or Deputy Commissioner, within or adjacent to the respective areas covered by their licenses. Nor shall they be permitted to issue spirit in quantities of less than two gallons, or 12 reputed quart bottles.

16. If a retail vendor wishes to obtain spirit from a wholesale vendor, he shall arrange for payment to the wholesale vendor of the price of the spirit which shall include still-head duty, plus the cost of the spirit as charged by the Distiller, subject to the maximum rate stated in the Distiller's license, and such reasonable profit as the wholesale vendor may charge; but if any wholesale vendor's charges are exorbitant it shall be open to the Revenue Commissioner to prescribe, and vary from time to time, the maximum rates chargeable by such vendor.

17. No spirit shall be removed from a wholesale depôt to a retail shop except under a permit, granted by the wholesale vendor, in the subjoined duplicate form.
